President
World Link for Law

Date: 10 April 2026

Method of voting

The President/Chairman manages the meeting and for each resolution he will ask those attending if anyone is against a motion, or abstains, for each resolution. In that real time, if a person/member does not object, it is assumed that they are affirming the motion/resolution. The President will note the decision. The resolution will be passed by a majority decision as per the Regulations of the Association.

If a person/member has a question on any resolution, connected, but unrelated to their actual vote/decision at the time, they should raise this matter under 'Any Other Business', unless these questions/observations have been notified before in writing/email by April 24, 2026.
